

Statement of Faith

This statement of faith as outlined in the paragraph below does not exhaust the extent of our beliefs.

Final Authority for Matters of Belief and Conduct

Each Church of Christ is autonomous and has no central governing body. Each congregation is governed by the Bible itself, as the inspired and infallible Word of God that is contained in the 39 books of the Old Testament and the 27 books of the New Testament. For the Gilroy Church of Christ, the Word of God as contained in the following English Translations: The King James, The New King James, The American Standard, The New American Standard and The English Standard speaks with final authority concerning truth, morality, and the proper conduct of mankind, and are the sole and final source of all that we believe. For purposes of faith, doctrine, practice, policy, and discipline for the Gilroy Church of Christ, the male members of the Gilroy Church of Christ are the final interpretive authority on the Bible's meaning and application.
